Man Dies of Self-Inflicted Gunshot Wound

(REEDSBURG, WI) On Wednesday at 10:07am, Reedsburg Police were called by staff at the Reedsburg Area Medical Center Emergency Room to report a man who had been shot in their parking lot.

Officers arrived on scene and determined a male had shot himself in the parking lot of the Emergency Room. The man was taken into the Emergency Room for treatment where he died of his injuries. A handgun was located at the scene.

The Hospital was on lockdown, per their policy, during the investigation. The lockdown has been lifted. The name of the deceased has been withheld pending notification of family members.
